-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE THREE MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

1. Applicant's election without traverse of the invention of Group I, claims 1-14, in the reply filed December 6, 2005 is hereby acknowledged.
2. Claims 15 and 16 are hereby withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a non-elected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed December 6, 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 101:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.
4. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 1-14 are drawn to a method of producing a disembodied data structure. It has been held that such claims are considered to comprise non-statutory subject matter, for merely manipulating an abstract idea without producing any "useful, concrete, and tangible result." In re Warmerdam, 33 F.3d 1354; 31 USPQ2d 1754 (Fed. Cir. 1994).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

6. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nahan et al. (US 5,664,111).

Nahan et al. discloses a computer-implemented method for pricing goods of independent sellers using a marketer controller capable of communicating via a communications network, the marketer controller including a CPU and a memory operatively connected to the CPU, the method comprising the marketer controller: receiving from an independent seller, via the communications network, data identifying the independent seller's good; presenting to the independent seller a menu including plurality of selectable options, each of the options corresponding to a respective predetermined method for deriving a sale price for the independent seller's good; and deriving the sale price for the independent seller's good using the predetermined method corresponding to a seller-selected option.

Regarding claim 2, in the computer-implemented method of Nahan et al. the sale price is determined proximate a time of sale of the good to the buyer.

Regarding claims 3, 7, 11, and 13, in the computer-implemented method of Nahan et al. the predetermined method comprises a discounting a manufacturer's suggested retail price.

Regarding claims 4 and 8, in the computer-implemented method of Nahan et al. the marketeer controller stores a database of suggested retail prices.

Regarding claims 5, 9, 12, and 14, in the computer-implemented method of Nahan et al. the predetermined method comprises discounting a price for a certain good in new condition when the independent seller's good is the certain good in used condition.

Regarding claim 6, in the computer-implemented method of Nahan et al. the seller agrees, before the sale, to sell the good at a sale price determined by the marketeer proximate a time of sale of the good to the buyer, the sale price being determined in accordance with the predetermined method corresponding to the seller-selected option.

Regarding claim 10, in the computer-implemented method of Nahan et al. the sale price is determined proximate to a time the buyer wishes to buy the good.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to the disclosure.

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication, or earlier communications, should be directed to the examiner, Jerry O'Connor, whose telephone number is (571) 272-6787, and whose facsimile number is (571) 273-6787.
